Adler Pelzer Group is recognized by General Motors as Top Supplier for Performance, Quality, and Innovation

Adler Pelzer Group was named a GM Supplier of the Year by General Motors during its 26th annual Supplier of the Year awards ceremony held Friday, April 20 in Orlando, Florida.

Adler Pelzer Group was one of the 132 suppliers from 17 countries recognized by GM as best suppliers, by consistently exceeding GM's expectations, creating outstanding value, or bringing new innovations to the company. The announcement represented the most suppliers GM has recognized since debuting the Supplier of the Year event in 1992.

Tom McMillen, Executive Director, GM Global Purchasing Interior Safety; Geert Raskin, APG VP Sales; Flavio Stedile, APG COO Mercosur; Bob Reuter, Executive Director, GM Global Functional Leader Interior Engineering.

“This is an opportunity for General Motors to honor those suppliers who are truly the best of the best,” said Steve Kiefer, GM vice president, Global Purchasing and Supply Chain. “The automotive industry is transforming at an incredible rate. The relationships we have with our supply base means everything when it comes to delivering a strong vehicle lineup today and the cutting-edge vehicles and mobility services of tomorrow.”

“The GM Supplier of the Year award rewards the great achievement by a committed team and reveals the Adler Pelzer Group efforts and success to better serve our customers every day”, commented Pietro Lardini, CEO of Adler Pelzer Group.
