Adler Pelzer Group Honored with Prestigious Award from Ford Otosan – Recognition for Excellence in Quality, Delivery, and Collaboration

Adler Pelzer Group (APG) is proud to announce that it has received a distinguished supplier of the year bronze award from Ford Otosan, recognizing its sustainable success in the areas of Quality, Delivery, and Collaboration across both Ford of Europe and the Global Ford team.

This honor reflects the commitment and excellence of the teams across the organization, as well as the strong and long-standing partnership it has built with Ford Otosan.

The recognition highlights several key drivers behind the shared success:

- Disciplined execution of projects, delivered on time and with precision
- Ongoing support throughout product development processes
- Consistent and structured inter-organizational cooperation
- Responsiveness and agility in addressing customer needs
- Joint commitment to green transformation and sustainability through a unified, forward-looking approach
